Brief communications from all parts of the Kingdom will always be very acceptable.
Matter intended for publication in the editorial columns should be addressed to EDITOR DAILY HONOLULU PRESS.

Business communications and advertisements should be addressed simply "Business Manager,"
DAILY HONOLULU PRESS,
Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands.

Advertisements, to ensure prompt insertion, should be handed in before 5 P. M.

It is not often that the DAILY HONOLULU PRESS "blows its own trumpet," but we feel a pardonable pride in calling attention to the "Grand Offer" made by us, in another column of this issue. This is an enterprise which, we believe, is the first of its kind that has ever been attempted in this Kingdom, and, we trust, will receive the patronage it deserves, as it is a bona-fide arrangement by which the public can get a six months' subscription to our paper, and a valuable Holiday Gift, at club rates, which are much less than the regular prices when not combined. This offer is open only until January 1, 1886.

TUESDAY.....DEC. 1, 1885

CROWDED OUT.

Owing to the pressure of our advertisements and the interesting character of our foreign news we are obliged to omit an interesting editorial upon the opium traffic and kindred topics. In our next issue we will publish the reasons which caused the decline in sugar during the first of the month besides other interesting foreign matter which lack of space crowds out.

Latest Foreign News.

The Servians Driven out of Drayoman Pass.

Fighting on Ice and Snow.

Uprising of the French Population in Canada to Denounce the Hanging of Riel.

CYCLONE IN INDIA.

French News—General De Leslie's Humiliation.

ENGLISH CAMPAIGN NOTES.

SOFIA, November 22d.—Diplomatic representatives here have been forbidden to send cipher telegrams. After a stiff battle this afternoon the Servians were driven out of Drayoman pass by the Bulgarians, who then occupied the pass.

Fighting in the Snow and Ice.

LONDON, November 22d.—Advices from Tzaribrod state that the weather there is terribly severe. Drayoman Pass is blocked up with snow, and the roads across the mountains are impassable.

The Drina Division forced its way through after a hard hand struggle in Saturday's fight and joined the main army before Slivnitsa.

Orders have been sent to Belgrade to delay the formation of the second reserve division as it is not needed at present.

The Protocol of the Conference.

CONSTANTINOPLE, November 22d.—The Balkan Conference has drafted a final protocol, which embodies the decision declaring that the restoration of the status quo ante is equally binding upon Servia and Bulgaria. It is reported that if King Milan refuses immediate peace under the terms of the Conference, he will be declared an enemy to the peace of Europe, and two of the signatory Powers will enforce his deposition.

It was rumored here to-day that the Turkish troops had had a skirmish with the Greeks. The rumor was subsequently declared untrue. There are now 272,000 Turkish troops on the Balkan peninsula.

Servian Reports.

BELGRADE, November 22d.—The Servian losses on the 27th, 18th and 19th insts. included eleven officers killed and twenty-two wounded. The Emperor Franz is Joseph, in compliance with the request of Queen Natalie, has granted permission to the doctors of the Austrian Red Cross Society to go to Servia.

A despatch from Tzaribrod says that the Bulgarians have massacred a Servian lieutenant named Kotitch, who was found on the field of battle wounded, and also the Servian lieutenants, Schivko and Ratkovich, who were prisoners of war.

General Mihailjan telegraphs that the Bulgarian troops, which had been fighting in the field near Urdin, have been ensconced in the fortress of that town, and that the entire district between Timok, Belgradjik and Lom, on the Danube, has been cleared of Bulgarians.

Turkey Warns Servia.

LONDON, November 22d.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Daily News says: The Turkish Government has warned Servia to withdraw her troops from Bulgaria, or the Turkish troops will invade Servia.

Foretelling a Conflict With Greece.

LONDON, November 22d.—A despatch from Athens to the Standard says that Turkey is inclined to force a conflict with Greece before the latter has completed her preparations for war.

The Uprising of the French Population Denounces the Hanging of Riel.

MONTREAL, November 22d.—The long-talked-of mass meeting at the Champs de Mars, by French Canadians, was held this afternoon, about ten thousand persons being present. There were three platforms, at each of which the French flag floated. There were between thirty and forty speakers, who one and all protested in strong language against the action of the Government in hanging Riel, and called upon all present to combine to defeat the Government. Sir John Mac Donald was the special object of invective, his action in the present instance being regarded by the speakers as a crime of the most culpable character. A telegram was read from Messrs. Boyd and Murphy of the New York Irish Union protesting against Orangism and British brutality, and wishing the French Canadians success in their struggle. The following resolution, among others, were passed unanimously:

That in executing Louis Riel the Government committed an act of inhumanity and cruelty unworthy of a civilized nation and deserves the condemnation of all friends of right and justice without distinction of race or religion.

The Rev. Father Dowd, at St. Patrick's Church to-day, advised his flock to have nothing to do with the new National Party, which, he said would lead them to disaster.

Meeting at Quebec.

QUEBEC, November 22d.—A meeting called to express indignation at the execution of Riel, held at Lewis to-day, drew an immense crowd. Effigies were burned, and flags, inscribed "Glory to the hero and martyr Riel," "Death to Sir John Mac Donald" and "Hurrah for Riel" were displayed. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Hon. M. Peletier called upon all to unite and said the war had been opened by the Orangemen in Sherbrooke in attacking the Nationalist, and here M. Desjardins, Conservative Member of Parliament, said a protest against the execution of Riel, representing 1,500,000 French-Canadians, was sent to the Government, but not recognized, and the threatened rupture had now come between the Government and the Province of Quebec. He reminded Sir John Mac Donald of the burning of the Parliament House in Montreal in 1843, and later of the scaffold of Riel. Other prominent men made strong speeches against the Government.

An Indignant Audience.

An indignation meeting at Quebec Centre last night was attended by 3,000 electors. Mr. Bosse, M. P. for this constituency, said he did not think the Ministers deserved censure. He was not allowed to speak further, and in the uproar which followed he was forced to retire. Some threats were made against him, but the influence of the members of the committee and the presence of a strong posse of policemen prevented them from being carried out. Owen Murphy, ex Mayor, Messrs. Semoux and Fitzpatrick, Hon. P. Garneau and others addressed the meeting. The speakers stated that the movement was directed against Orangism only, and they wanted it distinctly understood that the question of Protestantism and Orangism must not be confounded, and that they wished to live in peace in the future as they had done in the past with the former denomination. Indignation meetings were also held at Charlebourg and Beauport on the same date.

President Greys's Intentions—General De Leslie's Humiliation.

PARIS, November 22d.—The Gaulois says that President Greys has decided, in the event of his re-election, to send a message to the Chambers advising the granting of an amnesty to political offenders without exception. General Briere de Lisle, who was recalled from the command of the French troops in Tonquin, arrived here to-day.

He refused to be interviewed. Officers accompanying him declare that his disgrace is unjust and that his removal has caused discontent in the army. They say that the strength of the troops in Tonquin continues to be sapped by disease and the repeated alarms by the enemy.

FRANCE AND CHINA.

PARIS, November 22d.—A despatch from Peking says that all difficulty between France and China has been removed, and that negotiations between the two nations has been resumed.

English Campaign Notes.

LONDON, November 22d.—A London special says: Under the polling arrangements the tendency of the borough elections will become known Thursday and the general result of the borough and county elections on Saturday, but the exact position of parties will not be determined until the drawing to a close of the elections early in December.

Lord Salisbury will deliver the final Conservative manifesto at the dinner of the St. Stephen's Club to-morrow evening.

The Parnellite manifesto has fallen flat. Most of the Liberal newspapers have passed it by without comment, while the Conservative press criticise it in a slight manner.

Great Disaster in India.

LONDON, November 22d.—A despatch to the Times from Calcutta says that 3,000 people have been drowned and 150 villages submerged in Orissa by a cyclone, and that 1,241 square miles in the Moosohedabad and Hudda districts have been devastated.

Patti Enjoined from Work.

PARIS, November 22d.—Mme. Patti has been ordered by her physicians to take a month's complete rest. The will cause a collapse of her projected tour through Belgium and Holland.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The attention of our readers is invited to the very liberal offer made by us, in another column, to furnish any of the articles specified therein, together with six months' subscription to the DAILY HONOLULU PRESS, at club rates, which are much less than if the publications, or articles, were ordered separately.

We desire to introduce our paper into every English-speaking family in this Kingdom, feeling assured that it will be permanently retained after its merits, as a live, wide-awake journal, are once known.

As an advertising medium the DAILY HONOLULU PRESS possesses unequalled advantages, having retained all the subscribers to the late Saturday Press in addition to a new subscription list which is daily increasing, so that the paper is not only enjoying a large circulation in this city and vicinity, but is, also, mailed by every steamer to subscribers at almost every landing on the other Islands and also to foreign countries, thus combining the advantages of both daily and weekly editions. The coming month, especially, our paper will have a much larger circulation than all the other daily papers combined, as we intend sending specimen copies to every resident on these Islands who reads English.

We, therefore, ask your co-operation in our enterprise and trust you will avail yourself of this offer. Very respectfully yours, etc., PROPRIETOR OF DAILY HONOLULU PRESS.
